Brenda and Charlie,

I spoke with Billy this afternoon by phone about the volunteer council.

The conversation went really well... the council/charter will be dissolved and all oversight shifted to the Museum Educator. Through the use of decentralized command the Educator will work with respective departments to handle on-boarding volunteers, training & needs, assignments, etc.

We are going to work together on a joint message to be sent to all volunteers about this shift, and institute the changes over the next season. The immediate change will be the reporting and communication, after that will be the scheduling of standing coordination meetings with departments, and then general volunteer meetings.

I can elaborate more by phone or video conference if interested.

Best,

Tyler
