Good Morning Tyler,

I must say that the news of this position being open has really piqued my interest. I have some questions about the position:

How long will this yard period be? Is there a target end date?
Where will the work take place?
What does the budget look like for the planned work?
Is there any notion as to what the state/PHMC has in mind for operations post yard?
What does the application process look like for this position?

I suppose that is it for now. I'm sure more will arise with the second cup of coffee.

Looking forward to hearing from you,
