Howdy!

Yeah I figured this might be difficult to work out! Things have not been easy at work so I won't be wrapping up this project until next week-so I also can't swing that. My hope was that you would be delayed by this week of shit weather! Let me know how things go, and if you'd be planning a stopover somewhere along the st Lawrence later next week I'm down to jump on to Lunenburg :)

Figs,

We are still waiting here at the dock in Erie awaiting the last little details of the contract with the yard to be settled. I wish I had more information about schedule to share. The long and short of it is that I won't be to Quebec City by the 15th. Logistically this may not end up working. Also, travel for volunteers would not be covered as there is no mechanism in the commonwealth to pay for such things. I'll do my best to keep you in the loop as we proceed and maybe a short jaunt is still in the cards.

Best,
Greg
